1. What is Bank Guarantee-i (BG-i)?
BG-i is a legal instrument executed by a bank on behalf of its customer favouring the Beneficiary, normally Government department, statutory authorities or other such third parties in connection with a contract-entered into by the customer with the Beneficiary. BG-i issued in favour of a resident must be denominated in Ringgit Malaysia (RM). There are two (2) types of guarantees: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Financial Guarantees: Defined as guarantees issued by the Bank for its customers, favouring a third party under which the Bank agrees to pay the third party, if the customer is unable to pay the amount due to the third party when there is a claim made by the third party. Non-Financial Guarantees: Broadly classified as performance bond guarantees. Such guarantees are those issued by the Bank for its customer favouring a third party, under which the Bank agrees to indemnify the third party should the customer fail to perform in accordance with the terms of the specific contract entered into. Shariah contract applicable under BG-i is Kafalah bil Ujrah, whereby the Bank as a Guarantor conjoins the guaranteed party in assuming the latter's specified liability, with imposition of a fee. Under this contract, the Bank guarantees to pay an agreed sum to one party in case customer fails or default in fulfilling his obligation as per conditions set out in the guarantee.

3. Know Your Risks

What will happen if you ignore your obligations?

- 1) Compensation Charges - If the Bank makes an advance payment to honour a BG-i claim, the outstanding amount will be classified as a past due bill and shall be subject to compensation charges as below:
 - a) If you default your payment after the expiry of Facility Tenure, you are to pay compensation charges = BNM Islamic Interbank Money Market ("IIMM") rate on the outstanding balance (outstanding principal plus accrued profit)
 - b) If you default your payment, causing the Facility to be terminated and brought to court, the compensation charges will be = Up to 1% p.a on the outstanding balance (outstanding Principal plus accrued profit).
 - a) For default payment after court judgement, the compensation charges = IIMM rate on the basic judgement sum.

(Note: Compensation charges is computed on daily basis & shall not be added to the outstanding Principal & shall not be more than the outstanding Principal. The computation method and rates are subject to changes as may be prescribed by BNM.)

- 2) Your BG-i facility and other trade facilities will be suspended immediately once the outstanding BG-i is converted into past due.
- 3) The Bank may set off/deduct any outstanding balance from any credit balance you maintain in your deposit account with the Bank, subject to issuance of seven (7) days' prior written notice by the Bank to you.
- 4) Right to commence recovery or legal action:
 - i. Legal action will be taken if you fail to respond to reminder notices. Your asset may be foreclosed, and you will have to bear all costs. You are also responsible for settling any shortfall after your asset is sold.
 - ii. The Bank has the right to commence recovery activities (including engaging third-party debt collection agencies), foreclosure, and bankruptcy proceedings.
 - iii. Legal action against you may affect your credit rating, leading to credit being more difficult or expensive.

What is the major risk?

You may be exposed to the risk of false or baseless claims made by the beneficiary. This is because the clauses in the Bank Guarantee-i may require the bank to pay the claim without allowing it to be disputed.
